Welcome

Long summer nights are drawing in, autumn is upon us. All in all, it's perfect weather for the cinema. Well, all weather is perfect cinema weather to me - rain, shine, snow, wind, I'm in the cinema!

We have a great mix of films in this programme. The eagerly anticipated big-screen adaptation of Downton Abbey is sure to be one of the biggest films of the year not to feature a superhero (I'll admit I haven't seen the programme so I don't know if Dame Maggie Smith dons a cape and fights crime). Judy stars Oscar winner Renée Zellweger as Judy Garland and tells the story of her visit to London in 1968. It looks lavish and full of musical set-pieces, and is sure to get people talking Oscar.

The Inverness Film Fans, who screen films here every second Monday, are having a season of classic film noirs. If you like fast talking, double crossing, face slapping, gun toting hoodlums and dames then this is the season for you.

We are partnering up with the Ness Book Fest and screening some films to accompany their wonderful programme. All films are free, as is everything in the festival. Tom Hanks and Meg Ryan in bookshop rom-com You've Got Mail (on 35mm) and François Truffaut's dystopian classic Fahrenheit 451 are just a taster of what we have in store for all the Highlands' book lovers.

Likewise, our live broadcast season has some gems coming up. Margaret Atwood discusses her follow up to The Handmaid's Tale, NT Live is broadcasting Phoebe Waller-Bridge's Fleabag; and there is a great opportunity to see Scotland's greatest ever comedian doing what he does best: making us laugh.

I hope you enjoy what you see and please do let me know what you think.
