

Rabbi Yosef: Ahmadinejad a New Haman

Share

Speaking Saturday night, former Chief Rabbi Ovadia Yosef called Iranian President Mahmoud Ahmadinejad a modern Haman, equating him with the villain of the biblical Purim story. "Just like in the days of the first Haman, we have had Hamans in all the generations. Today we have a new Haman in Persia who is threatening us with his nuclear weapons. Their swords will strike their own hearts, and their bows will be destroyed," Rabbi Yosef said.

Other archived news briefs: Feb 14 2010, 11:43 AM, 2/14/2010